The Presbytery ELECTED the following persons to serve as officers of the Corporation, The Presbytery of Santa Fe, a New Mexico non-profit Corporation, effective January 1, 2023: MWS Harry Eberts, President; Elder Stephen Rhoades, Treasurer; Elder Stephen Rhoades, Secretary

XXI. COMMISSION ON FINANCE & PROPERTY REPORT

Acting Treasurer Stephen Rhoades reviewed the financial position of the Presbytery after the end of 2022. The Presbytery is solvent despite an 18% decrease in investments due to having enough cash outside of investments.

He informed the body that the group umbrella policy of the presbytery had not been renewed by Church Mutual and churches that were a part of the policy will need to explore their own umbrella insurance options.

The Presbytery RECEIVED the Commission on Finance and Property Report as part of the Consent Agenda.

Finance and Property Annual Report – 2022

The Presbytery continues to be blessed by the financial support from the churches. Per capita giving was $132,321 and unified mission giving was $157,471. Combined with other mission giving, the total giving of our churches was an inspiring $440,915.

2022 was a challenging year in the stock market, causing an 18% loss in for the Presbytery's investment portfolio, which ended the year at $1,685,356. Such losses are expected with our long-term outlook allocations.

Regarding the operating budget, the total operating income was $410,993 with total operating expenses of $436,996. Despite the deficit, expenses stayed within the projected budget for the year. The primary change from 2021 was a decrease in income from $459,108 to $410,993.

A financial review of the 2021 financial statements was completed by an outside accountant with no noted modifications. A full audit will be completed for the 2022 financial statements.

The Commission on Finance and Property held a meeting on November 10, 2022.

1. F&P reviewed the investment portfolio and determined no changes were needed at this time.
2. F&P is reviewing policies for use of restricted and designated funds.

XXII. COMMISSION ON MINISTRY REPORT

MWS Seth Finch and MWS John Guthrie presented the Policy for Health and Family Needs regarding paid leave for Ministers of Word and Sacrament. COM recommends this policy based on current state laws and the anticipated requirements from the Book of Order. Presbytery APPROVED the Policy for Health and Family Needs.

PRESBYTERY OF SANTA FE
Policy for Health and Family Needs

Santa Fe Presbytery presents the following policy for the compassionate care of church personnel in physical and mental health or when children are added to the family. Sessions shall apply this policy to all Ministers of the Word and Sacrament and may adapt these guidelines to fit the needs of other church staff. The following policy is considered a minimum requirement; sessions may choose to be more generous with leave time and compensation when possible.

A. SICK LEAVE

1. Definition: When a minister is incapable of performing the functions of ministry, and is normally under the care of a physician, and has every expectation of returning to work.
2. Terms:

- a. A minimum of 10 days* within a calendar year with full salary, housing and pension benefits. By New Mexico law, employees earn one hour per 30 hours worked. For full-time exempt employees, this is a minimum of 64 hours (or 8 days) per calendar year so 10 days complies with The Healthy Workplaces Act.
 - b. Business and travel allowances as well as other reimbursable ministry expenses would not be payable during sick leave.
 - c. Additional needs may be negotiated with the session.
3. Applications: Notice shall be given by the minister (or a responsible family member) to the clerk of session or personnel committee as soon as sick leave is needed, at which time the terms would become applicable.

 Or the number of hours equivalent to two weeks of work for part-time positions*

B. LONG TERM SICK LEAVE

1. Definition: When the medical or mental health prognosis is that the minister may not be able to return to work for an extended period of time. (More than three months.)
2. Terms: Long term sick leave days will be accumulated at the rate of 30 days (1 month) a year for three years. Full salary, housing and pension benefits will continue for 90 days (3 months) or until the disability benefits of the Death and Disability Plan of the Board of Pensions takes effect.
3. Applications: Notice shall be given by the minister (or responsible family member) to the clerk of session or personnel committee as soon as it is determined that long term sick leave and disability benefits will be necessary. Notice will also be given to the Board of Pensions.

C. PARENTAL LEAVE

1. Definition: When a minister or spouse is to give birth or adopt a child under the age of 18. This policy applies to all ministers, regardless of gender. .
2. Terms:
 - a. Twelve (12) weeks leave at full salary and housing allowance OR sixteen (16) weeks at 75% salary and housing allowance.
 - b. The minister's travel allowance may be discontinued and allocated to help with pulpit supply expenses.
 - c. Vacation and sick leave may be used to supplement parental leave at the minister's discretion.
 - d. Pastor's Participation benefits will be continued by the congregation at the full salary and allowance level for the parental leave period.
 - e. Parental leave will ordinarily take place within the first year of the child's arrival.
 - f. In the case of interstate or international adoptions, additional leave up to 14 days with full pay may be granted. Travel allowance funds may not be applied in these cases.
3. Application: Parental leave shall be negotiated with the session at least four months before the anticipated birth or home placement. Unforeseen complications in the pregnancy, delivery, and/or adoption process may necessitate adjustments in these plans.

D. FAMILY EMERGENCY LEAVE

1. Definition: When a sudden emergency arises with the minister's immediate family household which requires his/her presence, rendering the minister unable to perform the functions of ministry for an indefinite period of time.
2. Terms:
 - a. Sick leave conditions will apply while the minister is unable to perform the functions of ministry.
 - b. Long term family illness needs (parent, one in loco parentis*, spouse, or child) may be negotiated with the session with the following suggested guidelines:
 - i. 45 days at 100% of annual salary and housing allowance OR
 - ii. 60 days at 75% of annual salary and housing allowance OR
 - iii. 90 days at 60% of annual salary and housing allowance.

In loco parentis: "in place of a parent." For instance, a grandparent or family friend who raised you.*
3. Applications: Application for a family emergency leave of less than seven days will be arranged through the clerk of session or personnel committee. Longer family emergency leave requires negotiation with the session.

E. FAMILY DEATH

In the case of a family member of the minister or spouse, a period of up to five days should be granted to be with other family members. That means, if the death occurs locally, up to five days is appropriate; if the death/funeral/burial is "out of state" or some distance from home, time for travel should be added.

F. SUMMARY

These guidelines are offered in the judgment of the Commission on Ministry as fair, reasonable and compassionate minimums that ministers and sessions may consider in negotiating health and family needs, including when a new child becomes a part of the family. It is not the intent of the Commission on Ministry that these guidelines should be limiting. Sessions are free to exercise their compassion in more generous ways if they deem it appropriate. If needed, the Commission on Ministry may be called upon to assist with the negotiations in unusual circumstances, and stand ready to do so. The minister may elect, with the approval of the session, to use vacation time in conjunction with sick leave. The Commission on Ministry does not encourage the combining of vacation time with sick leave because these two categories are designed for two distinctly different purposes.

MWS Catherine Robinson recognized the honorable retirement of Rev. Susan Quass and shared about her years of ministry, particularly serving as the director of New Mexico Conference of Churches.

#4a- Proposed Overture to the 226th General Assembly (2024)

An Overture to the 226th General Assembly (PCUSA) from the Presbytery of Santa Fe

The Presbytery of Santa Fe respectfully overtures the 226th General Assembly (2024) to approve and send to the presbyteries for ratification the following new paragraph to the Form of Government, following G-1.0103:

G-1.0104 Other Forms of Corporate Witness (Small Worshipping Communities, etc.)

In circumstances where the formation of a traditional ecclesiastically and legally organized congregation is not desired or deemed appropriate, but a worshipping community nonetheless wishes to exist and function in relationship to The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), presbyteries and congregations may work together with such a group to provide supervision and support. Such recognized groups shall be under the mutually agreed upon oversight of a minister of the Word and Sacrament approved by the presbytery, shall include at least one ruling elder in their chosen leadership, and shall function under the financial, legal, and disciplinary sponsorship of an ecclesial council (either a session or a presbytery). The sponsoring council shall, in consultation with the worshipping community, authorize any celebrations of the sacraments within the group in accordance with the Directory for Worship. Membership records for group participants desiring to be formally enrolled as baptized, active, or affiliate members in the PCUSA shall be maintained by the sponsoring council. Such groups shall not hold property, and may not undertake any financial, legal, or contractual obligations, apart from their sponsoring council. They shall adhere to the sponsoring council's required policies on sexual misconduct, harassment, child and youth protection, and antiracism. Presbyteries shall determine appropriate means of representation and participation of such groups in and through the sponsoring councils (session and/or presbytery).

Rationale:

1. The intention of the proposed amendment is to provide a minimal, flexible and adaptable, level of historic Reformed polity for small worshipping communities that wish to identify with the larger church in worship and formation, discipleship and mission. The wording is intended to be adaptable to current constitutional provisions and/or to whatever recommendations may emerge from the Task Force to Explore the Theology and Practice of Ordination.

2. There is currently no constitutional provision in The Book of Order of basic organizational guidance for small worshipping communities wishing to relate to the PCUSA, but not organized as a congregation. But, as is recognized in the establishment of the Task Force to Explore the Theology and Practice of Ordination, there is a broadly felt need for such.

3. From the PCUSA web-page on New Worshipping Communities: “Living out the Gospel demands ministry which engages today’s cultures (John 1:14). New ways of joining Christians together for contextual ministry will use current and historic ways of “being church” as springboards for creative innovation (Matt 9:17).”
<https://docs.google.com/file/d/0Bzgch04BtNAjblluaTFyZXczQWc/edit>

4. From the PCUSA web-page on New Worshipping Communities: “As distinct yet connected expressions of the body of Christ, NWCs have local leadership arising from their own community of faith (Exodus 18:21). Pastoral leadership, facilities, and programs are all appropriately structured in order to demonstrate good and faithful stewardship.”
<https://docs.google.com/file/d/0Bzgch04BtNAjblluaTFyZXczQWc/edit>

5. This vision encompasses varying types of small worshipping communities, such as:

- a. New Worshipping Communities which are not at a place to be organized as congregations.
- b. Small churches no longer deemed viable or sustainable as organized congregations but which may be able to continue in ministry and service under sponsorship.
- c. Intentional small worshipping communities (fellowships, house churches, etc.) that desire to identify and be connected with the larger church without the burden of formal organization or legal incorporation.
- d. Groups with a particular need or emphasis (linguistic and cultural, minority, recovery, differently abled persons, residents of retirement communities, etc.) that wish to focus ministry on those needs as distinct worshipping communities, but also identify and be connected with the larger church.

6. The role of the sponsoring council (session or presbytery) would basically be that of an “umbrella organization” with oversight of financial, legal, and disciplinary matters as needed.

The principal body responsible for discerning the appropriateness of any such groups and their activities in relationship to the PCUSA would be the presbytery, in consultation with any sponsoring congregation, acting under the authority of Scripture, guided by The Book of Confessions, and governed by The Book of Order.

#4e- Report from the Advocacy and Administrative Commission to Camino de Vida

Camino de Vida AAC report for 6.17.2023 Presbytery meeting

The Advocacy and Advisory Commission (AAC; the Presbytery's AC interfacing with Camino de Vida) for Camino consists of 4 Presbytery members: David Blankinship (Sandia), Ester Griego (St. Andrew), Rev. Judy Wellington and Bryan Beck (Shepherd of the Valley). Our presbytery group works consensually with 4 rotating members of the Rocky Mountain Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA), along with the Synod's Director of Evangelical Mission. Rev. Guillermo Yela, Camino de Vida's pastor, and Camino "members" Doris Canté and Rosalía de Leon round out our team.

1. Guillermo's conclusion of his call at Camino de Vida: At the end of May, Guillermo announced to Camino's Steering Committee (Comité Timón) and the AAC that he accepted a call to a large metropolitan church in Houston, to oversee Hispanic/Latino ministries. Guillermo's last Sunday at Camino will be July 16th (11:30 a.m.; 3907 Isleta Blvd SW), and members of the Presbytery are encouraged to attend.

Guillermo, his wife Ciria, and Guillermo's family have been instrumental in the development of the Camino worshipping community. The "new church development" began from scratch in 2009, as a joint venture with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Presbytery. For the first few years, the services were held in a rented elementary school auditorium, on Sunday mornings.

The congregation grew under Guillermo's guidance. In 2014 the congregation began holding services in the Cristo del Valle Presbyterian Church, and later that congregation dissolved, offering the use of this presbytery facility to Camino de Vida.

Camino de Vida has blossomed as a multicultural worship environment, with a number of immigrants from Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean having been served over the years. While these participants' lives are characterized by periodic relocation as they seek employment, a core of well-established Hispanic/Latino families is active at Camino, and serves as leaders of Camino's "session equivalent," the Comité Timón.

The AAC, speaking for the Presbytery, thanks Guillermo and his family for consistently faithful, selfless service to the people of Camino de Vida, as we wish Guillermo fulfillment and joy in his new call.

2. Life at Camino: Following the brunt of the pandemic, church life is returning to a more nearly normal state. Camino is striving to help families which were receiving COVID-augmented SNAP (food stamps) benefits, as those terminated in the spring. The onsite Growers Market and a Sharing Table of food are means being employed. Several new immigrant families have joined worship at Camino this year.

Ciria Yela and Doris Canté continue their studies in Austin Theological Seminary's (ATS) online Certificate in Ministry program, which ATS offers in Spanish. Doris will graduate this summer, and Ciria will graduate later in the year. Thereafter they will be eligible to apply as Commissioned Ruling Elders.

3. Guillermo's D. Min. program: Guillermo continues work on a Doctor of Ministry at the Berkley School of Theology. Coincidentally, it is offered in Spanish. Guillermo is scheduled to finish the program in June of 2024.

4. Advocacy: A subgroup of the AAC has produced some preliminary video and visual materials for presentation at Lutheran and Presbyterian venues around Northern New Mexico.

5. Finances: A subcommittee of the AAC met with Guillermo to review financial policies and procedures at Camino. The ultimate goal is to provide mechanisms where at least 2 different people process financial transactions, with those reviewed by an AAC member and discussed as needed at each AAC meeting.

With Guillermo's departure, temporarily the presbytery will oversee Camino's financial transactions.

The 2022 ELCA support of $25,000 was delayed in delivery, but it was deposited in the presbytery's account in early March. Therefore, the $22,000 deficit for Camino, recorded on the 2022 Profit and Loss statement reported at the Presbytery's February meeting, has been erased.

#12a- Statement of Faith- Rev. Brett Mitchell

I believe in God the Creator, Jesus the Pilgrim God, and the Holy Spirit who accompanies us on life's pilgrimage. I believe that the cosmos—seen and heard, and beyond our perception—is God's creation. God set Earth on its pilgrimage among the planets. Upon Earth, all manner of diverse and fascinating life has come to be born and dwell. Followers of God the Creator witness the Holy in the powers of nature, as well as in the lives of the priests, prophets, warriors, rulers of the day, and the ordinary people that Yahweh has chosen to live extraordinary lives. Establishing an eternal covenant relationship, the Hebrew Scriptures reveal a love story between God, humanity, and creation that continues to unfold.

I believe that Jesus is the Pilgrim God. Jesus was human and God among us. Jesus lived among us as the embodiment of the Gospel, practicing healing in his touch, displaying gestures of grace and love among the people, worked wonders with creation, confronting the powerful in his speech, comforted the afflicted. He taught us to pray, and revealed the divine in the ordinary circumstances and matter of everyday life. Jesus is the progenitor of the pilgrim life. His life began with his family's pilgrimage to Egypt, continued as a sojourner with his disciples, leading to his pilgrimage to the cross and beyond.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, who accompanies the people of God on their pilgrimage today. With Christ's ascension, the members of the body of Christ were given the Spirit who sometimes leads, cajoles from behind, yet always accompanies us along life's pilgrimage. The Spirit reminds us that we are not the first called to be pilgrims.

The communion of saints' pilgrimage stories provide lessons for our journey daily as we strive toward the gates of the realm of love. The Church is the body of Christ on pilgrimage. As Christians, we are individually members one with another, bound together by the love of God. But the body of Christ is not a stagnant entity. With its many gifts and talents, united in its diversity, Christ's body is on a pilgrimage, moving throughout time around the world. On this Earthly pilgrimage, the members are taught the virtues that show us—and the world—the very nature of our character. In friendship, first shared with us with Jesus, we learn the fruit of the Spirit that makes our pilgrimage possible as Christ's community. Love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control are learned, taught, and practiced within the body among friends who find themselves God's pilgrim people. Like all pilgrimages, there is both a genesis of our journey and a destination. While our journey begins at birth, it is in the sacraments of baptism and Holy Communion that we know both who and whose we are. Secure in this knowledge, we are capable of dialoguing with others from other faith walks who challenge and nurture our understanding of what it means to live the Christian faith.

#12b- Statement of Faith- Rev. Cathy Ulrich

Statement of Faith

The image of water feeds our theology — with water we are baptized into the body of Christ, sustained in our life of faith, and redeemed on our journey from slavery to freedom — thus, the acronym WATER provides the components for my statement of faith:

- W – Wait on the Lord.
I wait for the Lord, my soul waits in God's word I hope. (Psalm 130:5)
- A – Acknowledge that each person is a child of God.
For in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. (Galatians 3:26)
- T – Thanksgiving for the blessings God has provided.
I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart. (Psalm 9:1)
- E – Encourage others in the faith.
Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection, outdo one another showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. (Romans 12:9-11)
- R – Redemption and forgiveness are a gift from Jesus.
God has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (Colossians 1:13-14)

These biblical themes serve to shape my faith, inspire my involvement in the body of Christ, and focus my mission in the community and the world.

#12c- Statement of Faith- Rev. Tom Ulrich

God, As on the World's First Morning (A Statement of Faith)

Hyfrydol 8.7.8.7.D¹

God, as on the world's first morning, ² paints the earth with ev'ry hue, with a rainbow's brush³ adorning visions filled with life anew.
From the glory of sunrises to the beauty of sunsets, all creation harmonizes with the praise God's work begets.⁴

A bright dawn of hope resplendent shines for all humanity through the One whose love transcendent binds us in community. ⁵
God awakens our volition to value ecology as we join in loving mission, living our theology. ⁶

Through the sun illuminating ev'ry culture, land, and race, rays of hope are emanating with the blessings of God's grace.⁷
Through the One whose resurrection conquered darkness, death, and strife, we now serve as Christ's reflection, sharing gifts of light and life.⁸

Working for a new creation, making dreams reality, bringing health and education as we share in ministry. ⁹
At God's table all-inclusive, Christ's pure light outshines the sun and with love and life effusive, humankind unites as one.¹⁰

¹ Although it is unusual for a Statement of Faith to be sung, some of the creeds of the early church were thought to have been hymns. Perhaps the most vivid examples occur in Philippians 2:5-11 and Colossians 1:15-20.

² The first stanza highlights the God who has created and is still creating.

⁴ Throughout the course of each day, the diverse voices of creation can celebrate God's activity in the world.

⁵ The love of Jesus Christ – who is the Light of the world (John 8:12) – not only reveals a new day, a new dawn, of hope for humanity, but Christ's love also invites us to create a new community.

⁶ In responding to God's love revealed in Jesus Christ, we are called not just to profess our faith, but to live it. In doing so, we become good stewards of all that God has given to us and participate in Christ's work.

⁷ By participating in Jesus' mission, believers reflect the light of Christ and share in illuminating the darkness of the world.

⁸ Not only does Christ's resurrection inaugurate a new reality and new life for all humankind, but it also summons Christ's disciples to share in the work of offering light and life to the world. As John's gospel highlights, "In Him was life, and the life was the light of all people" (John 1:4).

⁹ Empowered and sustained by the Holy Spirit, we are inspired to participate in shaping God's new creation that transforms the world.

¹⁰ At the Lord's table where all creation is invited, Christ's transforming light binds us together in unity so that even the wolf and the lamb will feed together (Isaiah 65:25).

#19- Presbyterian Women Report

Presbyterian Women of the Presbytery of Santa Fe June, 2023

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves

- to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,
- to support the mission of the church worldwide,
- to work for justice and peace, and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom

Presbyterian Women are active and well, coming together for Bible Study, celebrating Sabbath, sharing community concerns and resources to further God's work in the world.

Women from at least ten churches within the presbytery participated in mission giving and/or Bible Study this past year. The study, Celebrating Sabbath, concluded with two gatherings for a LAUGHS meal...ingredients that were LOCAL, AFFORDABLE, UNCOMPLICATED, GOOD, HEALTHY and SATISFYING. Participants reflected on the meaning of Sabbath rest and how each will carry the practice forward.

In addition, over $6,000 in mission giving has been sent to Presbyterian Women's Opportunity Giving and Birthday and Thank Offerings.

The Horizons Bible Study for 2023-24 is entitled, "Sacred Encounters: The power and presence of Jesus Christ in Luke-Acts". Local PWs will be reflecting and discussing together, and there will be an opportunity for a zoom gathering monthly that will be presbytery-wide. Anyone interested in the zoom study may contact Susan Keil Smith at susankeil1246@gmail.com to participate. We will begin the study the third week of September.

#20a- Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Child/Youth/Vulnerable Adult Protection Policy

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION & CHILD/YOUTH/VULNERABLE ADULT PROTECTION: POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Adopted _____

A. Statement of Purpose

*As God who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct.
Tend the flock of God that is your charge, not under compulsion but willingly, not for sordid gain but eagerly; don't lord it over those in your charge but be examples to the flock . . .*

You know that we who teach shall be judged with greater strictness.

I Peter 1:15; 5:2; James 3:1 NRSV

We believe and proclaim that all people are created by God. God values all human life and intends that all people have worth and dignity in all relationships. We believe in justice for all persons.

The Presbytery of Santa Fe (PSFe or Presbytery) will not tolerate sexual misconduct. Sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and trust, and is therefore, unjust. PSFe also believes that incidents of sexual misconduct cannot be ignored, rationalized, or covered up “for the good of the church.” The Presbytery hereby proclaims that the good of the church cannot be served by overlooking an abuse of power and betrayal of trust. Charges of misconduct are to be dealt with without delay, fairly, and with compassion for all parties involved.

Further, the Presbytery of Santa Fe seeks to maintain the strongest sense of integrity, safety, nurturing, and care involving all interactions with children, youth, and vulnerable adults. Any type of abuse involving children, youth, or vulnerable adults has lasting and devastating effects on the life of the victim/survivor. We believe it is the call of the Church to be a life-giving entity of Christ’s healing and hope for community and individuals, not an entity that brings harm and hurt.

The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)’s Sexual Misconduct Policy states that the basic principles of conduct guiding this policy are as follows:

1. Sexual misconduct is a violation of the role of pastors, employees, volunteers, counselors, supervisors, teachers, and advisors of any kind who are called upon to exercise integrity, sensitivity, and caring in a trust relationship.

2. Sexual misconduct is a misuse of authority and power that breaches Christian ethical principles by misusing a trust relation to gain advantage over another for personal pleasure in an abusive, exploitative, and unjust manner.
3. Sexual misconduct takes advantage of the vulnerability of persons who are less powerful to act for their own welfare, including children.

We understand that power in pastoral relationships has the potential to be unbalanced because of the power associated with the office of ministry or Christian leadership. Persons in Christian leadership, like all others in helping professions who are in contact with people during their most vulnerable moments, are responsible for keeping appropriate boundaries and assuring the safety of those in their trust. The role of ministry is a sacred trust that all those who work on behalf of the Church will use their skills and authority for the wholeness and well-being of others.

Sexual misconduct is the comprehensive term used in this Policy that includes: sexual abuse or exploitation of children or adults, rape or sexual assault, sexual harassment, and emotional abuse. Such behavior is not limited to physical contact, but may also include gestures, spoken words, or written contact. Detailed definitions can be found in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A) Sexual Misconduct Policy.

The purpose of this Policy is to make clear PSFe's position on sexual misconduct and abuse, to describe the procedures for prevention of sexual misconduct and abuse, to detail the responsibilities and roles in implementing the Policy and to describe how PSFe will work, alongside the Church Discipline, to respond to alleged sexual misconduct.

B. Scope of the Policy

This Policy shall apply to all ministers who are members of the Presbytery of Santa Fe of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.); all commissioned pastors/ruling elders, temporary ministers, ministers of other denominations serving in pastoral relationships within the Presbytery, Christian educators, seminary students serving in local congregations, candidates, inquirers, Presbytery staff, and all who serve on behalf of the Presbytery when they are engaged in any activity organized, sponsored, or conducted by the Presbytery and its entities (commissions, councils, committees, task forces) whether they are a volunteer or paid employee or agent of PSFe.

The Policy does not apply to the churches or congregations of PSFe; however, G-6.0106 states: "All councils shall adopt and implement a sexual misconduct policy and a child and youth protection policy."

The Policy is to be interpreted and applied consistently with the Book of Order, all other applicable policies of PSFe, and state, federal, and local law. The Policy may be used as evidence in the disciplinary process.

C. Preventive Actions

a. Distribution

This Policy will be made available publicly on the presbytery website. This Policy will be provided to all ministers who become members of this presbytery or who are approved to serve the presbytery and to all employees when first hired. This Policy and its procedures shall be given to persons who accuse others of misconduct, including those who are or claim to be victims of sexual misconduct, and to individuals accused of sexual misconduct.

b. Education and Resources

PSFe will strive to provide resources and educational opportunities that address sexual misconduct prevention and boundaries training not less than annually. Training will include topics such as presentation of this Policy, mandated reporting rules, boundary issues, self-care for prevention, and disciplinary response procedures related to allegations of sexual misconduct.

Ministers, commissioned pastors, ministerial candidates and certified Christian educators are required to attend a boundary training every three years, either in-person or online. PSFe recommends that all staff and those regularly working with children and youth at Presbytery sponsored activities attend a boundary training every three years. The Presbytery will maintain documentation of compliance. Attendance will be required to maintain validation or position in the Presbytery. Retired ministers not engaged in any form of pastoral work and not involved in any work involving youth or children will not be expected to attend training.

c. Screening Procedures

PSFe will perform a national criminal background check on all prospective ministers and commissioned pastors, applicants for employment, and for volunteers that work with children during Presbytery sponsored activities. A volunteer congregation member can be certified by a church staff member or ruling elder of that person's congregation that the volunteer has passed the congregation's background check. The discovery of a criminal conviction will not automatically exclude the person from work in the Presbytery. The use of the criminal record report will be determined on an individual case-by-case basis. Generally, convictions for an offense involving children and/or involving violence, indecency, and conduct contrary to our mission will preclude someone from being permitted to work with children. Failure to disclose a criminal conviction on an application form will also be a disqualifying event.

The Presbytery may contact references for prospective ministers, commissioned pastors, employees and volunteers that work with children at Presbytery sponsored activities. In addition, the Presbytery Administrator will make reference checks with the authorized persons to determine if a person to transfer into the Presbytery from another Presbytery/Synod has a history of sexual misconduct. This information is shared with the Commission on Ministry and/or the chairperson of the search committee.

d. Safe Space Standards

The following standards apply to events and activities coordinated by PSFe including childcare settings during an adult event. For the purposes of this policy, the terms “child” or “minor” include all persons under the age of eighteen 18 years. A vulnerable adult is defined as any person who has reached the age of 18 years or older without the developmental or cognitive capacity to consent or make appropriate decisions concerning their health, safety, and welfare. Such persons shall be included within the scope of protection of children set forth in these standards.

1. Rule of Three or More- In all situations involving children, youth, and vulnerable adults, there should always be at least three people present at all times (including overnight sleeping accommodations and transportation in a vehicle)- i.e., one screened adult and two or more attendees, or two screened adults and one or more attendees. Ideally, there should be one screened adult of each gender. A minimum of two screened adults shall be present at all events involving children and youth.
2. Open Door- Classrooms should remain open unless there is a window in or near the door. Doors should never be locked while children, youth or vulnerable adults are inside the room.
3. Avoid one-on-one interactions- Situations that require one-on-one meetings, such as pastoral counseling, should be conducted in view of other adults either in or outside the meeting room and another adult must be notified in advance of the meeting. Common physical expressions of affection (hugs), affirmation (pat on the back), support (prayer), or physical care (first aid) are appropriate in a community of caring. Care must be taken that physical expressions of affection are not excessive or imposed upon another individual. (See Appendix C: Interactions Guide). Adults should avoid one-on-one digital or telephone contact with a minor (whether oral, photographic, video or text). The parents/guardians of minors should be included in such digital or telephone communications.
4. Respect of privacy, restroom guidelines- Adults must respect the privacy of minors in restroom and shower facilities and intrude only to the extent that health and safety require. Recommended procedures for escorting young children to use the facilities include checking that the facilities are empty, staying within hearing distance, and propping open doors when assistance is required. During overnight events, separate times for minors and adults to use the facilities and for males and females, if applicable, should be scheduled.
5. Supervision and Release- Adults should utilize head counts and roster lists and shall always know the whereabouts of children in their care. Children should only be released to a parent, guardian, or other person authorized by the parent/guardian. Sign-in and sign-out sheets should be used.
6. Parent Consent and Responsibilities- The parents or legal guardians of each minor must provide the appropriate contact information and medical forms for each activity/event. Consent forms must be signed for emergency medical treatment and photo releases. It is the policy of PSFe not to administer either prescription or non-prescription medications to children under our supervision, except to children with life-threatening conditions (such as asthma or allergic reactions). Parents or legal guardians of such children should address their situation with the adult leader to develop a plan of action. Parents and legal guardians are encouraged to be considerate of other attendees when deciding whether to place a child displaying symptoms of sickness under our supervision.

D. Response Procedures

a. Immediate Safety

Anyone who suspects sexual, physical, or other abuse shall immediately intervene and provide for the safety of the alleged victim(s) involved.

b. Reporting the Incident

Reports of sexual misconduct should never be taken lightly or disregarded or allowed to circulate without concern for the integrity and reputation of the alleged victim or accused, and of the Church. Reports will be received in strict confidence, both before and after they have been submitted to appropriate authorities as outlined below, to the extent permitted by local or state law.

Anyone who suspects sexual abuse, ethical misconduct, or any other form of abuse or neglect, shall report the incident immediately to the adult in charge of the activity and in writing to the Stated Clerk or Presbytery Administrator. If an incident occurs in your presence or is reported to you, immediately make notes including what happened, who was present including witnesses, and any action that was taken following. (See the reporting form guide in the Appendix.)

The written report should include a clear narrative of the alleged offense together with any supporting facts and information. This written statement will be given to the proper law enforcement bodies, if required, and to the appropriate governing body or council as follows:

- Allegations against an employee staff member of the Presbytery shall be filed with the Personnel Chairperson.
- Allegations against a member or an employee of a congregation shall be filed with that congregation's minister and clerk of session.
- Allegations against a minister member or commissioned pastor or certified Christian educator of the Presbytery shall be filed in writing with the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery and the Commission on Ministry chairperson(s), with awareness that it immediately initiates the disciplinary process.
- Allegations against the Stated Clerk or the Presbytery Administrator shall be filed with the Personnel Chairperson and the Stated Clerk of the Synod of the Southwest. The Personnel Chairperson shall consult the Stated Clerk of the Synod for the ways to conduct the investigation.

- If the person does not fall under the categories above but is acting on behalf of the Presbytery or one of its entities, allegations shall be filed with the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery.

Allegations involving a child/Notification of Parents

Child abuse is any action (or lack of action) that endangers or harms a child's physical, psychological or emotional health and development. Child abuse occurs in different ways and includes physical abuse, emotional abuse, and sexual abuse. It also includes neglect defined as depriving a child of their essential needs such as adequate food, shelter, supervision, medical care or other basic necessity.

If the conduct is suspected child abuse and involves an adult, the person receiving the initial report is considered a mandatory reporter and shall report the incident to civil or criminal authorities when required by local or state law. In New Mexico, any person who has reason to believe that a child is a victim of child abuse or neglect has a duty to make a report to the Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) at 1-800-333-SAFE or to law enforcement.

"Reason to believe" means that the evidence available to that person, if presented to other individuals of similar background and training, would make those individuals think that the child was abused or neglected.

All persons covered by this policy have a duty to report suspected child abuse to the Presbytery.

All persons should be informed of and must comply with state and local laws regarding incidents of actual or suspected child abuse and shall cooperate with all law enforcement investigations.

In the event that an incident of child abuse or neglect is alleged to have occurred at a Presbytery activity, the adult in charge of the activity shall inform the child's parents or legal guardians of the incident as soon as possible. If deemed necessary, the adult in charge may first consult with the Presbytery Administrator, the Stated Clerk, or the Chairperson(s) of the Commission on Ministry as to the nature and content of such communication. Notification of parents or legal guardians shall not be delayed when immediate medical care is required for the alleged victim.

In addition, PSFe's liability insurance company will be immediately notified, and the Presbytery shall complete an incident report and otherwise cooperate with the insurance company. Any documents received relating to the incident and/or allegations will immediately be forwarded to the insurance company and to the Stated Clerk.

c. Initial Response

The response of the Presbytery to allegations of sexual misconduct includes both pastoral and judicial responses to all parties who are impacted by these allegations: the accuser(s), the victim(s), the accused, the congregation, and the families of the individuals involved.

Judicial procedures are fully stated in the Church Discipline or successor provisions in the Book of Order. A Pastoral Response Team to carry out pastoral but not investigative functions shall be offered to all parties. Pastoral procedures are outlined in Part d.

- When a sexual misconduct allegation is filed against an employee of the Presbytery, the allegation will be dealt with according to the personnel policies of the Presbytery.
- When a sexual misconduct allegation is filed against a member or employee of a congregation, that allegation will be dealt with by that session which is bound by the Church Discipline as well as any supplemental policies and procedures adopted by that session. Sessions may decide to take advantage of the provisions in the Church Discipline (D-4) and refer charges to a higher council.
- All ministers are under the jurisdiction of the presbytery where they hold membership. They do not hold membership in a local congregation. When a sexual misconduct allegation is filed against a minister, the allegation will be dealt with by the presbytery, which is bound by the Form of Government and the Church Discipline or subsequent provisions in the Book of Order as well as the policies and procedures outlined in this document. The Stated Clerk will initiate the judicial process outlined in the Church Discipline using the following procedures:
 - An Investigating Committee will be formed to investigate the allegation(s) according to the provisions in the Church Discipline or subsequent provisions.
 - The accused may be placed on administrative leave during the judicial process according to the Church Discipline (D-10.0106) and to the policy and procedures outlined in Part f. If there is any conflict, the Church Discipline or subsequent provisions shall apply.
 - Acknowledging that every situation is unique, the due process rights of the accuser, victim and the accused will be maintained.
 - If not already done, the incident shall be reported to the appropriate agencies under local or state law, and the proper law enforcement bodies as required.
 - The Stated Clerk will inform the Presbytery at its next stated meeting that an Investigating Committee has been formed, without naming any of the individuals involved or the nature of the alleged offense. (See D-10.0103)
- When a sexual misconduct allegation is filed against someone that is neither an employee of the Presbytery nor a member of a congregation within the Presbytery, but is acting on behalf of the Presbytery or one of its entities, that person is subject to the discipline of the particular church and denomination where he/she holds membership. The Stated Clerk of the Presbytery shall send the allegation to the appropriate person in the church or denomination in which the person holds membership. The Stated Clerk shall request from that church or denomination a report on the disposition of the case.

d. Pastoral Response Team Procedures

The purpose of a Pastoral Response Team (PRT) is to provide confidential care, spiritual support and emotional encouragement for those impacted by the allegations of sexual misconduct. The PRT is composed of church members and ministers who have had training, experience, and personalities that uniquely qualify them to respond to allegations of sexual misconduct.

The PRT only provides pastoral support; it has no role in the investigating or church disciplinary process. PRT members may not serve as counsel or witnesses in the church disciplinary process into those specific allegations. In most cases, the PRT and church disciplinary process shall occur simultaneously.

The Chairperson(s) of the Commission on Ministry shall appoint PRTs. Generally, 2 member PRT teams will be assigned to each of the following:

- the accuser and the alleged victim (if these are different);
- the accused;
- the congregation as necessary.

Where possible and as appropriate, at least one of the members of the PRT will be of the same gender and ethnicity of the person receiving support.

Pastoral Response Teams may be assigned one or more of the following functions:

- To listen to and assist injured parties- To present procedural options, and to counsel with the person until a course of action is determined. The PRT shall assist as needed in facilitating the use of Presbyterian polity.
- To consult with alleged offenders- The Stated Clerk will communicate outside of the church disciplinary process with the alleged offender to inform them of the allegations, and to discuss possible responses and next steps. When so desired, a PRT will be appointed to consult with the accused. Such a PRT will provide pastoral support to the alleged offender and/or family members.
- To offer support to families or congregations which have been injured by sexual misconduct and/or allegations of sexual misconduct.
- To see that the required reporting of any child abuse or other criminal behavior is provided to the appropriate authorities.

Members of the PRT teams will familiarize themselves with Chapter 1 “Preface” of the Church Discipline. In working with those impacted by allegations of sexual misconduct, the PRT will readily acknowledge the need for justice, the appropriate demand for consequences, and the Christian Gospel invitation to grace, healing and forgiveness for all parties involved. (See Appendix B: Meeting the Needs of All Involved).

The PRT will consider all their conversations with the accused and accuser/victim to be confidential. The only circumstances where confidentiality will be revoked is when someone expresses a threat to do harm to himself or herself or another person, especially when child abuse has been disclosed. Confidentiality can be revoked when the accused or victim accuser voluntarily surrenders confidentiality, or when such conversations are legally required to be divulged.

The needs of the session and congregation will be treated with upmost care and sensitivity, with a commitment to appropriate disclosure, transparency about the judicial process, and understanding of the larger Christian context of justice and grace. Conversations with the session and congregation are considered public conversations and will not be treated as confidential unless they are conducted in Executive Session or the meeting is otherwise “closed.”

The PRT will make available to all parties a list of professional mental health referrals and resources specializing in the area of sexual misconduct. Limited financial assistance for counseling may be provided by the Presbytery prior to final adjudication of the matter.

The PRT will serve as long as the team, the parties involved and the Presbytery see it as beneficial and necessary. The PRT may continue its work even after the church disciplinary process is completed.

e. Confidentiality

Throughout the process of responding to an allegation of sexual misconduct, all persons with knowledge of the incident shall maintain strict confidentiality and shall share information with others only on a “need to know” basis. All reports and other written materials related to the incident will be kept in secure files maintained by the Presbytery.

f. Media Contact And Inquiries For Information

Inquiries from the public or the media for information about any allegation of sexual misconduct should be referred to the Stated Clerk. The advice of legal counsel will be sought before responding to media inquiries or releasing information about the situation to the Presbytery. All other representatives of PSFe will refrain from speaking to the media.

APPENDIX B: MEETING THE NEEDS OF ALL INVOLVED

(Taken from the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Sexual Misconduct Policy and Its Procedures: Appendix C)

In cases of sexual misconduct there are needs that have to be met for the good of all persons, groups, and entities. To ensure that the governing body is ready to meet the variety of needs, a response team may be named. This team will not investigate the allegation or in any way function as an investigating committee for disciplining members or officers, but should confine itself to coordinating a process that will meet the specific needs of victims and their families (if any), the accused and family (if any), employing entities, congregations, and governing bodies.

A. The Needs of the Victim

The governing body, employing entity, and response coordination should assure that adequate treatment and care are available for alleged victims of sexual misconduct and their families. Sometimes, the victim or family is so angry and alienated from the church, that offers of help may be perceived as insincere or as attempts of a cover-up. If the victim or family at first refuses, the church should continue to offer help. Above all, the church should not act in a self-protective manner by ignoring the victim and families affected.

The extent of the damage to the victims of sexual misconduct will vary from person to person, and is influenced by such factors as the degree or severity of abuse, the age and emotional condition of the victim, human dynamics, and the importance of one's religious faith. The governing body, entity, and response team is to assume in all cases that the victim has been wounded by the experience.

Feelings of guilt, shame, anger, mistrust, lowered self-esteem, unworthiness, and feelings of alienation from God, self, the religious community, and family are frequent injuries suffered by victims. The response team needs to be sensitive to the victim's pain and need for healing, and to act by making the appropriate pastoral care available.

The following are some of the needs of the victim:

1. to be heard and taken seriously. From the time that the victim is first able to indicate that sexual misconduct has occurred, that person should receive immediate attention and serious consideration from all church representatives.
2. to receive pastoral and therapeutic support. The victim may require spiritual and professional assistance as a result of sexual misconduct. The response team should offer to help arrange for such support from a minister and therapist, if the victim desires. Discussions with such people would be confidential, privileged conversations.
3. to be informed about church processes and progress with regard to the accusation. One member of the response team should be the church contact person for the victim. Frequently, this contact person will give the victim information as to what is happening in the church as a result of the accusation.

4. to receive legal advice. The response team should suggest that the victim might benefit from independent legal advice. (Legitimate claims might be more effectively pursued and flimsy or false claims discouraged.) If requested, the response team should suggest ways in which independent legal advice can be obtained.
5. to be assured of an advocate of one's own choosing. A victim may need continuing moral support from one individual who is present while the church process deals with the accusation. This advocate may be a relative, friend, or someone suggested by the response team. This advocate could speak for the victim, if necessary.
6. to be assured that justice will be pursued. The victim needs to be told by the response team, and shown by the processes of the church, that justice is being pursued through fact-finding, truth-telling, confrontation, and agreement that may include removal or temporary exclusion of the accused from office or adjudication of the accusation.
7. to receive healing and reconciliation. The victim needs to receive a sense of healing and reconciliation with all concerned --- the self, the family, the church and ideally, the accused. The response team can help bring healing and reconciliation about by using the church's processes and resources.

While the above are the needs of the victim, one recognizes that all of these needs may also not be met through a reasonable handling of a specific case, but may only occur over a lengthier period of time. All of these needs, however, should be taken seriously and compassionately, and the rights of the victim respected.

B. The Needs of the Accused

The governing body or entity shall offer treatment and care for the accused as well as alleged victims and families. If the accused is a minister, the primary responsibility falls to the Commission on Ministry.

Feelings of guilt, shame, anger, mistrust, lowered self-esteem, depression, unworthiness, and feelings of alienation from God, self, the religious community, and family are often experienced by the accused. In addition, there may be fear of job loss, incarceration, and indignation if an allegation is false.

When a person is found not guilty of charges of sexual misconduct, it is important for the governing body or entity to see that the decision is disseminated as widely as possible within their power, unless doing so would further injure the person accused.

1. Personal Care

Whether the allegations about the accused are eventually found to be true or not, the accused deserves to be treated with Christian kindness and respect. The response team may suggest that the accused seek spiritual support or professional counseling. People in staff positions, such as presbytery executives or stated clerks, should not engage in personal counseling of the accused because of their potential involvement in the disciplinary process.

2. Economic Security and Care for Family of Accused

When an allegation of sexual misconduct has been made against a minister, the economic security of the accused is directly threatened, along with reputation, career, and family relationships. Again, the Commission on Ministry can be of assistance.

The response team may alert the Commission on Ministry to the possible spiritual, emotional, and financial needs of the family of the accused and recommend expert resources.

C. The Needs of a Congregation in a Context of Sexual Misconduct

The governing body, employing entity, and response team should be aware of the problems a congregation or employing entity may experience following allegations of sexual misconduct by a minister, employee, or volunteer. The allegations may polarize the congregation or organization, damage morale, create serious internal problems, and even limit the trust a congregation may place in succeeding ministers. Efforts should be taken to recognize and identify the problems and heal any damage that may be done to the congregation or organization.

When there is sexual misconduct on the part of a minister, non-ordained staff, or volunteer in a particular congregation, a number of needs unique to that congregation will emerge since sexual misconduct impacts congregations in different ways. Therefore, these needs will not necessarily emerge in the same sequence in each situation. Depending on the parties involved in the sexual misconduct, some of the needs may not emerge. In any event, those managing the church's response to the sexual misconduct will want to know that the following needs may emerge:

1. Pastoral Care

Members and staff of the congregation will need pastoral care. If it is the minister who is involved in the sexual misconduct, care will need to be provided by another member of the ordained staff (if the church is a multiple-staff church) or by a trained interim minister. If the minister leaves as a result of sexual misconduct, in extreme cases a trained interim minister or consultant in sexual misconduct may need to work with the congregation for an extended period of time.

If it is not a minister who is involved in the sexual misconduct, then the minister will provide the needed care for the congregation. The minister, if not previously trained in this specialty area, will need to consult with denominational specialists who will advise him or her how to proceed and any anticipated problems.

2. Information about the Case

Members of the congregation will need opportunities both to receive and give information. If a case of sexual misconduct becomes a matter of public knowledge within a congregation and if a minister has been found guilty of sexual misconduct, the interim minister or consultant may hold appropriate meetings with individuals, small groups, or with the whole congregation. Such meetings should provide information about sexual misconduct in general, Presbyterian polity and our judicial process, and how others who may have been victimized may be heard and ministered to. If the offender is not the minister, then the minister may perform these functions.

At such meetings, one may expect members to vent their feelings. An opportunity for this expression of feelings to happen should be provided. If the venting does not take place, then it may create serious problems for the future of the congregation, for future ministers, and for the governing body. Dynamics may differ somewhat in racial ethnic churches, but no empirical studies have yet demonstrated different dynamics.

3. Resource Persons

In light of the above needs, the following are several resource persons whose services would be valuable to a congregation in the context of sexual misconduct: a trained interim minister; a Commission on Ministry representative knowledgeable in polity and the effects of sexual misconduct in the church; a consultant or therapist with knowledge and experience in dealing with sexual misconduct; an attorney who can discuss legal aspects of a case; an insurance agent who can advise the congregation about their exposure to liability or coverage.

Spring 2023

We at the Board are working hard to support our ministers and employees of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in new and creative ways. If you have other ideas about how we can help, please let me know. I am happy to meet with presbytery and church committees to listen to your thoughts and hopes of how we can strengthen the benefits offered to those who serve the Church.

The Board of Pensions is a national agency of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), offering a broad range of benefits to PC(USA) churches, agencies, and mid councils, as well as affiliated employers.

Member/Employer Services: 800-773-7752, M-F 8:30 am to 6:00 pm ET

A Season of Rebuilding

At the Board of Pensions, we are committed to assessing and restructuring the Benefits Plan of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to meet the needs of a changing Church and to serve the most people possible. The Board has entered a season of rebuilding in which our goal is to make necessary changes to provide great flexibility and cost control for congregations as they care for the well-being of their pastoral leadership. Our vision is for all ministers ordained in the PC(USA) to be plan members. Read more.

Other important information:

- The Assistance Program: As part of our commitment to mutual care and wholeness, the Board of Pensions has once again expanded access to the Assistance Program to serve more ministers, employees, retirees, and surviving spouses who have financial need. The latest Assistance Program expansion includes broadened eligibility, increased grant amounts, and two new grants. Read more.
- Directors grant experience apportionment: The Board of Directors granted a 4.2 percent experience apportionment for the Defined Benefit Pension plan. Effective July 1, 2023, this apportionment will result in an increase in retirement and survivor pensions benefits for pension plan members and survivors as well as an increase in the pension credits accrued as of December 31, 2022, for active and vested terminated members of the pension plan. Read more.
- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: The Board is taking tangible, intentional steps to ensure a workplace culture that inspires a sense of belonging. We actively engage throughout the Church to ensure access to benefits plans and programs that provide wholeness. Read more.
- Retirement Savings Plan of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.): This 403(b)(9) plan helps participants build savings and achieve long-term retirement goals. This plan offers both tax-deferred and Roth after-tax contribution features. No hourly work requirement for employees. Read more.
